

Miguel Angel Molina Deputy General Manager Space Systems

Miguel Angel Molina graduated as a higher aeronautical engineer from the Higher School of Aeronautical Engineers (Escuela Técnica Superior de Ingenieros Aeronáuticos) of the Polytechnic University of Madrid (Universidad Politécnica de Madrid), then taking a Senior Company Management Course at the IESE Business School.

He has developed his entire professional career at GMV with more than 37 years experience in the Space Sector, where he has held different positions and responsibilities in software development, system engineering, project manager, division head and business unit responsible before moving into the current management positions, the Deputy of the General Manager